TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

By Appointment.

The Lledr is a small river which pursues a winding course and joins the Conway near Bettws-y-Coed. The valley or "Glyn" through which the river passes affords a series of particularly charming views ranking high in the estimation of lovers of this beautiful country. Hills clad with luxuriant growth run down to the water and with the distant peaks of the Snowdon Range as a background make a delightful setting to the stream itself.
